

Attention Girls Age 11-17

Come see what Scouts, BSA is all about

Troop #44G

Scouts, BSA

Haddam, CT

Boy Scouts of America was inspired by and modeled on the Boy Scout Association, established by Robert Baden-Powell in 1908. Agnes Baden-Powell, Robert's sister, helped establish the Girl Guides, which was the inspiration and model for Girl Scouts of America.

On Feb. 1, 2019, Boy Scouts of America was renamed Scouts, BSA and began a new chapter where young women are allowed and encouraged to join the well-established Scout program.

Be a part of history. Our regional troop, along with the boys' Troop #44, meets each Tuesday when school is in session from 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the First Congregational Church of Haddam, 905 Saybrook Road, Haddam.

Advantages of Scouting:

- Scouts gain valuable life lessons in leadership and responsibility.
- Scouts create close relationships bridged by teamwork – Many of our activities rely on teamwork and the patrol method. Through these, Scouts form close relationships with other members
- Scouts reap the benefits of setting and achieving goals.
- Scouts achieve a sense of independence – They learn how to set up their own tent, prepare their own food, clean up after themselves, safely use a knife, build a fire, and more.

Scouts learn new skills – By earning merit badges, they may learn new skills or even discover a new vocation.
